Three boys were drowned yesterday fternoon within a short distance of street, each nineteen years old, were frowned near Fletcher's as a result of the capsizing of a canoe, while Henry Smoot, sixteen years old, 209 14th street northeast, was drowned in Eastern branch near Devil's Elbow, where he and two companions were wading. Danel Smoot, his father, was seated on the shore watching the boys when the accident happened.

The three victims were prominently identified in church work. Young Smoot was crucifer and a member of the choir at the Episcopal Chapel of the Nativity, 14th and A streets northeast, while Barron and Cross were members of the Holy Name Society of Holy Trinity Church, 36th and O streets. Barron also was assistant master of ceremonies at the church.

Barron recently purchased a canoe, his friends stated, and yesterday afternoon he and Cross went up the river to enjoy a few hours away from the city.

The young men fastened their canoe to a rock opposite Fletcher's boathouse and strolled about the shore for several minutes. Seated on the rocks parshy and strolled about the shore for several minutes. Seated on the rocks nearby were Mr. and Mrs. William S. Culbertson and their small child, 212 Maryland avenue northeast. The Culbertsons heard one of the canoeists ask his companion the time, and the other remarked that they had just forty minutes in which to return to the city. Entering the canoe, the boys paddled from shore and were in the deep water when their craft suddenly capsized and they were thrown overboard. and they were thrown overboard.

It was impossible for any of them to be of any assistance to the victims of the accident, however, and all they could do was to take charge of the canoe and pick up the floating cushions, paddles and other paraphernalia. It was by means of the recovered property that relatives of the drowned men were able to make certain the identity of the victims.

Both College Graduates.

Barron was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Barron. The father is a member of the firm of Barron Bros., grocers, at 4275 M street. Cross was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joel W.
